Elisa Seppänen

leads this cross curricular course which begins on 28 March at 9.30am and finishes on 29 March at 3.45pm. A special feature of this two-day workshop is that Elisa will lead two sessions with children on the Saturday morning. The children are pupils at Little Ealing Primary School and Questors Young Musicians Club which takes place in the school on Saturday mornings. Elisa will be able to show, first hand, how the creative approaches she offers work in action. You will participate alongside the children. For the rest of the weekend you will work with Elisa on a diverse range of activities and processes which explore many ways to work musically with children of all abilities.
